THE TEXAS PLAINTIFFS' JOINDER
IN THE EXPEDITED REQUEST FOR STATUS CONFERENCE

This motion seeks an order that may adversely affect you. If you oppose the motion, you should immediately contact the moving party to resolve the dispute. If you and the moving party cannot agree, you must file a response and send a copy to the moving party. You must file and serve your response within 21 days of the date this was served on you. Your response must state why the motion should not be granted. If you do not file a timely response, the relief may be granted without further notice to you. If you oppose the motion and have not reached an agreement, you must attend the hearing. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the court may consider evidence at the hearing and may decide the motion at the hearing.

Represented parties should act through their attorney.

Emergency relief has been requested. If the Court considers the motion on an emergency basis, then you will have less than 21 days to answer. If you object to the requested relief or if you believe that the emergency consideration is not warranted, you should file an immediate response.

Relief is requested on or before May 11, 2022.

Neil Heslin, Scarlett Lewis, Leanoard Pozner, Veronique De La Rosa, and Marcel Fontaine (“Texas Plaintiffs”) join the Expedited Request for Status Conference for the following reasons:

Request for Emergency Consideration

The Texas Plaintiffs request an expedited status conference to alert the Court about issues affecting the upcoming hearing on the dismissal motions and the course of the bankruptcy. As the Court knows, the Debtors petitioned for bankruptcy under Subchapter V to push through a bankruptcy plan that forces the supposed payment in full of all Plaintiffs' claims in a dubious claims-estimation process. The Texas Plaintiffs, the Connecticut Plaintiffs, and the United States Trustee all saw this supposed plan for what it was and moved to dismiss the bankruptcy for bad faith. The dismissal hearing is set for May 27th. Naturally, the swarm of lawyers for the Texas Plaintiffs, the Connecticut Plaintiffs, the U.S. Trustee's office, the Debtors, and even the non-debtors will be preparing for this pivotal hearing at great effort and expense. Recent events that have transpired, however, make this dismissal hearing and even this bankruptcy unnecessary.

Like the Connecticut Plaintiffs, the Sandy Hook Plaintiffs in Texas have chosen to drop their lawsuits against the only Debtor they sued, InfoW. As the Court knows, certain Sandy Hook Plaintiffs in Texas previously nonsuited their claims the day that InfoW petitioned for bankruptcy. And earlier this week, the remaining Sandy Hook Plaintiffs in Texas and Connecticut dismissed their claims against the Debtors. In other words, the Sandy Hook Plaintiffs are no longer creditors.

The filing of the latest dismissals eradicates the need for this bankruptcy. After all, the Debtors' proposed chief restructuring officer explained that the point of the bankruptcy was to settle these claims. But the Debtors can no longer do so because they are no longer defendants in the Sandy Hook defamation cases. No grounds justify keeping this bankruptcy alive—let alone forcing the Texas Plaintiffs to participate in it at their own expense. The Texas Plaintiffs therefore request a status conference to address these latest developments.

Relevant Background

1. The Texas Plaintiffs filed multiple defamation lawsuits against the Debtor, InfoW, LLC, as well as nondebtors like Alex Jones and his company Free Speech Systems, LLC. In the course of the various cases, the Texas Plaintiffs discovered that InfoW, LLC has no assets, no revenue, no employees, and no money—and that Alex Jones and Free Speech are the primary targets at trial. (The Debtors’ bankruptcy petitions only confirmed this. ECF Nos. 1, at 10–11.)

2. A week before the trial of the first of these defamation cases, however, InfoW petitioned for bankruptcy under Subchapter V. Trying to save their trial date, the Texas Plaintiffs immediately nonsuited InfoW. See Ex. 1; see also Univ. of Tex. Med. Branch at Galveston v. Estate of Blackmon, 195 S.W.3d 98, 100 (Tex. 2006) (explaining that a nonsuite extinguishes a case or controversy from the moment it’s filed). But the trial date was postponed because InfoW removed the case to federal court after it had already been nonsuited.

3. Four days later, the Court held its first hearing. At the hearing, the Debtors admitted that the purpose of the bankruptcy was to settle the Sandy Hook claims.¹ Ex. 3, at 61. At the same hearing, the Sandy Hook Plaintiffs flagged that the bankruptcy was filed in bad faith and that the Debtors were not debtors within meaning of Subchapter V. Ex. 3, at 19–23, 61–63. They then assured the Court that they would seek dismissal of the bankruptcy on these grounds. And days later, they did. So did the United States Trustee.

4. The Court set an evidentiary hearing on the dismissal motions for May 27th.

5. Just days after setting the hearing, the Connecticut Plaintiffs dismissed their claims against the Debtors. The remaining Sandy Hook Plaintiffs in Texas likewise dismissed their claims against InfoW. Ex. 2.

6. Because the Sandy Hook Plaintiffs are no longer creditors, the Debtors cannot fulfill the purpose of this bankruptcy. Under the circumstances, all sides should want to avoid

The Court: . . . What do you believe the purpose of these Chapter 11 cases is?

Mr. Schwartz: The purpose? The purpose is to arrange to pay all of the plaintiffs the amount of their—let’s say in a bankruptcy sense, their allowed claim in full. That’s the purpose.

having the lawyers prepare for a mini-trial on an already-doomed bankruptcy. For this reason, the Texas Plaintiffs join in the Connecticut Plaintiffs' expedited request for a status conference.

Conclusion

For these reasons, the Texas Plaintiffs respectfully ask that the Court schedule a status conference as soon as possible.

THE COURT: Good morning, everyone. This is Judge Lopez. Today is April 22nd. I'm going to call the nine a.m. case, which is essentially first-day hearings in InfoW LLC, IWL -- it should be IWHealth LLC, and Prison Planet TV LLC.

There are a number of folks on the line, and I'm going to try to keep the line unmuted, just see how that goes. We have a feature where I can mute the entire line, and I'm going to try to avoid that. But if I end up doing it, I will give everyone plenty of notice and you will have to hit five-star if you wish to be heard.

I'm going to just ask everyone to please put your phone on mute right now until your case is called. And I hear a lot of back noise. I'm just going to turn the feature on. So I'm asking everyone just please take a look at your phone and please keep it on mute. When it is time to speak, I will call on you and you are able to speak. Let's see how this goes.

Let me start off by taking appearances. And why don't I start in the courtroom. Who is here on behalf of the Debtors?

MR. LEE: Good morning, Your Honor. Kyung Lee, K-

1 y-u-n-g, L-e-e, on behalf of the three debtors. And I would 2 like to introduce some of the players on my side that are 3 helping me with this project, the first one being RJ 4 Shannon.

5 Can you stand up, RJ?

6 MR. SHANNON: Good morning.

7 THE COURT: Good morning.

8 MR. LEE: That's my very bright, smart associate.
9 Younger than I am, so he is able to work a lot harder than I 10 am.

11 The second party that's also helping me is Adam 12 Rodriguez, who is my paralegal, who has been working on this 13 case. As you all know, he (indiscernible) get done by one 14 person (indiscernible) who made a team that worked with me.
15 So those two would be an integral part of the team.

16 And the third party I'd like to introduce today is 17 Mr. Marc Schwartz,. He's sitting with me at counsel's 18 table. He is chief restructuring officer of the three 19 debtors, Your Honor.

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: Good morning.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Who wants to go next?

22 MR. RUFF: Good morning, Your Honor. Jason Ruff
23 for the U.S. Trustee's office. And today with me is Ha 24 Nguyen.

25 THE COURT: Good morning to both of you. And I

1 think it's the first time I've actually seen you in person
2 as opposed to on the screen. Good morning.

3 MR. OKIN: Good morning, Your Honor. Matthew 4 Okin, O-k-i-n, and David Curry. We are here on behalf of 5 the proposed litigation settlement trustees, Russell Nelms
6 and Richard Schmidt. I believe that Mr. Schmidt and Mr.
7 Nelms are on the call.

8 THE COURT: I see them on video. And good morning 9 to you, sir. Good morning to you, Mr. Schmidt and Mr.
10 Nelms.

11 MR. BEATTY: Yes, Your Honor. Max Beatty and 12 Cliff Walston. We are here on behalf of creditors, Heslin, 13 Lewis, De La Rosa, Fontaine, and Pozner.

15 MR. BEATTY: Good morning.

16 MS. HASELDEN: Good morning, Your Honor. Melissa 17 Haselden, Subchapter V Trustee.

18 THE COURT: Good morning.

19 MR. CHAPPLE: Good morning, Your Honor. Ryan
20 Chapple and my colleague, Randy Williams, are here on behalf 21 of what we'll probably refer to as the Connecticut
22 plaintiffs, Mr. David Wheeler, Francine Wheeler, Jacqueline 23 Barden, Mark Barden, Nicole Hockley, Ian Hockley, Jennifer
24 Hensel, Donna Soto, Carly Soto-Parisi, Carlos Soto, Jillian 25 Soto-Marino, William Aldenberg, Richard Cohn, Trustee of the

1 bankruptcy estate of Erica Lafferty, William Sherlock, and 2 Robert Parker.

3 And, Your Honor, I also have the Connecticut
4 Plaintiff's counsel on Zoom. I would like to introduce them 5 as well.

6 THE COURT: Sure.

7 MR. CHAPPLE: Ms. Alinor Sterling and Chris 8 Mattei. And they will be filing motions of pro hac. They 9 just...

10 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning to both of you.
11 And, Ms. Sterling, if you wish to speak today, if anyone 12 wishes to speak today who has not filed a pro hac, you are 13 free to do so (indiscernible) of today. Not a problem at 14 all.

15 MS. STERLING: Thank you for that courtesy, Your 16 Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Does anyone else wish to make 18 an appearance in the courtroom? Okay. I am hearing some 19 background noise. So I am going to mute the line. I have 20 about 70 folks on the line, and it got a little tricky. So 21 I'm going to -- if you wish to speak, just hit five-star if 22 you wish to make an appearance. Let me see if there's 23 anyone who wishes to make an appearance. If you wish to 24 make an appearance, just hit five-star.

25 Okay. There's an area code 207-650 number. Do

1 you wish to make an appearance?

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Good morning, Your Honor.

3 Peter (indiscernible) from (indiscernible) Group. Thank 4 you, sir.

5 THE COURT: Good morning. Does anyone else wish 6 to make an appearance?

7 I've got one more. I've got an area code 210-601 8 number. Area code 210-601, do you wish to make an 9 appearance?

10 MR. BATTAGLIA: Sorry, Your Honor. I had it on 11 mute. Too many buttons to push. Ray Battaglia for Free 12 Speech Systems.

13 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Battaglia.

14 Okay, I think I have an area code 512-710. Does 15 someone wish to make an appearance from an area code 512-710 16 number?

17 MR. JORDAN: Your Honor, Shelby Jordan. I am
18 making appearance on behalf of Alex Jones.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, Mr. Jordan.

20 MR. JORDAN: Good morning.

21 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Lee -- for the folks who 22 have made an appearance, I have left your line unmuted. I'm 23 going to ask that you just keep your phone on mute just 24 during this time. And if you wish to make -- wish to speak, 25 just let me know. Okay, I believe I have covered everyone

1 who wishes to make an appearance. So, Mr. Lee, let me turn 2 things over to you, sir.

3 MR. LEE: May it please the Court, Your Honor.
4 Kyung Lee, for the record, for the three debtors. I want to 5 take out some administrative matters before we head to the 6 substantive matters for the Court.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 MR. LEE: Number one, Docket 8 had a joint 9 administration motion that was set for today, and I believe 10 Your Honor has already signed that order. So that is going 11 to be moot for today's hearing.

12 THE COURT: Yes, I did sign it.

13 MR. LEE: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 Number two, I believe in the Subchapter 5 cases, 15 that it would be your desire to sign these Subchapter 5 16 deadlines order today. And we have a form of order which 17 sets the status conference for an 1188 conference as well as 18 the status report under 1188(c) and a deadline to file a 19 Chapter 11 plan under 1188. So we have a form of order for 20 that if you want to consider that at the end of the hearing, 21 or whenever you think --

22 THE COURT: I think -- I don't know who can answer
23 that question. But if we pick a date, I need to know 24 whether we're going to have a case or not. But I'm not sure 25 that you can answer that question.

1 MR. LEE: That would be a question for --

2 (Break in audio)

3 THE COURT: Yeah. It's really a question for the 4 third party contributors because they are the ones who have 5 the right to terminate it. But one of the concerns that I
6 have -- and maybe this is just something -- again, all I 7 know is we're not going to write on the papers. Right? So 8 I'm just raising some concern to something that maybe 9 somebody can answer very quickly for me, is the third-party
10 contributors essentially fund these Chapter 11 cases. I 11 don't see any sources of revenue. As I read the trust 12 agreement, the Debtors are not actually allowed to engage in 13 any business activity, so they can't generate funds. So if 14 the third party contributors decide to pull the plug and not 15 fund this at any point, you know, maybe a ruling that I make 16 or just decide they don't want to go forward with it any 17 more, you know, the lifeblood of these Chapter 11 cases goes 18 away. And I think I need to understand whether we have 19 cases or not. Because, you know, sometimes the judge rules 20 in favor of one way, sometimes the judge rules in another 21 way. And I need to know kind of whether they are really 22 committed to these cases. You know, any (indiscernible)
23 Subchapter IV trustee doing her work and doing her -- 24 fulfilling her statutory duties in a Subchapter V case.

25 And I'm not indicating one way or the other that I

1 believe that the third-party contributors are not serious 2 about funding these cases. Obviously they took the time and 3 did it. I'm just raising -- parties really want to go 4 forward with a Chapter 11 case, right? There has to be some 5 stream of guaranteed source of funds, and it can't be tied 6 to dates that I haven't approved or decisions that I have 7 not yet to even consider based on motions that have yet to 8 be filed. You know, it's just not -- it's a hypothetical 9 world. But I just need to understand that.

10 But maybe all that could be answered. We're not 11 really going forward today. I'm just -- it's one of the 12 things that makes me think about the trust. And as I think 13 about the trustees -- if you're here, Mr. Okin.

14 Mr. Nelms and Mr. Schmidt, this is -- they're 15 certainly qualified. Put that aside. The question is who 16 is working on behalf of -- I'm just thinking at the 10,000-17 foot level. Right? Who works for the estate, right? If 18 the settlement trust fees are bound by the settlement trust 19 and must only work within the confines of the trust -- and I 20 know that the trust is still yet to be negotiated. But 21 whatever it lands on, then who does the work of the estate, 22 right? If they're trustees of a trust, then by approving 23 the trustees and then approving them to do the work
24 according to the trust. So it's almost like an implied 25 approval of the work done under the trust. But then who

1 represents the estate? That's the question that ultimately 2 somebody is going to have to answer. Who does the work of 3 the estate? Who is acting on behalf of solely the interest
4 of the estate? I get it, Mr. Schwartz is operating as a 5 327, but the proposed order that was -- someone was going to 6 ask me to sign today was going to say that Mr. Schmidt and 7 Mr. Nelms could fire them without my approval. Maybe 8 somebody should think about that as they think about the 9 10,000-foot level. There has to be a 327. 327 means that 10 they are fiduciaries of the estate, which means that the 11 court would have some supervision or they would answer on 12 behalf of the estate or be fiduciaries of the estate. I 13 just want to make sure that there is someone who is going to 14 take a position, and sometimes they're hard positions, on 15 behalf of the estate.

16 And I'm not saying these questions can't be 17 answered, I'm just -- again, (indiscernible) order on 18 papers, and they raised questions. And I didn't want to 19 blindsides anyone with any of these questions that I had. So 20 I don't want to start making comments on a trust agreement 21 that you're telling me is going to get negotiated. We'll 22 have to wait and see what's finally there.

23 MR. OKIN: We are certainly happy to have your 24 comments in advance so we can address them. But we will -- 25 these are issues we are wrestling with, including not making

1 sure the funding is available --

2 THE COURT: Because the money comes in, but the 3 money is not -- the way the trust is set up, the third party 4 contributors contribute to the trust, but it doesn't become 5 property of the estate because it stays within the trust, 6 and then the trustees fund in accordance with --

7 MR. LEE: The plan.

8 THE COURT: Right? So that becomes interesting.
9 And so if -- yeah, let's just say a payment in full -- 10 payment in full is defined under 10.1(c). Maybe that number 11 is different than what other people may have expected. Is 12 it property -- it's not property of the estate. And so I 13 would be allowing a claim that would never be paid. It's 14 the things that I think about.

15 And again, this has zero to do with Mr. Schmidt or 16 Mr. Nelms. That's not -- I just think about on behalf of 17 the estate and the Debtors that have to get administered 18 here. I should probably stay quiet and just allow Mr.
19 Schwartz to just answer. But I'm saying this for the 20 benefit of Mr. Lee, who is going to put Mr. Schwartz on.
21 Today is a day for information as I understand it. And so I 22 think I want to kind of express some of the thoughts that I 23 had as I read the papers and give everyone an opportunity to 24 react to it. Because I'm going to ask Mr. Schwartz these 25 questions. And so I suspect -- I don't want to surprise Mr.

1 Schwartz by the way I'm reading and understanding the trust
2 agreement. Because if I've got something wrong, I want 3 somebody to tell me.

4 MR. OKIN: Your Honor, I don't think you do on the 5 current documents. And that's part of what we are working 6 on. I did just want to leave the Court with -- both Mr.
7 Schmidt and Mr. Nelms have raised a lot of these same 8 issues. They think they can be a help to this process.
9 They come at this completely neutral. They think that if 10 people give them a chance and give this process a chance.

11 They've spent their whole lives, their 12 professional careers at least, in the bankruptcy system.
13 They believe in it. They think that more often than not, it 14 is a fair and equitable process for dividing up scarce 15 resources and that if given an opportunity, they can 16 actually give some people some peace and an opportunity to 17 resolve these issues. And they think that given enough time 18 and the opportunity to do it, that they can help bring that 19 about.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much.

21 MR. RUFF: Good morning, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Good morning.

23 MR. RUFF: Jason Ruff for the U.S. Trustee's 24 Office.

25 Your Honor raises a number of great questions.

1 And quite frankly, this case begs those questions as it has 2 been set forth before the Court.

3 I would like to just say at the outset too, our 4 opposition has nothing to do with the individuals that are 5 proposed to be the trustees, Your Honor. Our position is 6 threefold. And first of all, there's no emergency, so 7 that's off today. I think everybody recognizes there is no
8 emergency. But to Your Honor's questions that Your Honor 9 was just asking and what has been proposed here today, this 10 form with this litigation settlement trust, it's called a 11 litigation settlement trust. It seems to operate more than 12 that, thought. It seems to operate more like an LLC 13 operating agreement and that the trustees, as was proposed, 14 were to be managers of the LLC, have management authority of 15 the LLC, and with Mr. Schwartz reporting to them
16 essentially, that his duties would run to them. And there 17 is an inherent conflict there.

18 But Your Honor, 105, which is the authority that 19 they cite for seeking that, your Court blessed that, doesn't 20 extend that far. The bankruptcy code is clear about when a 21 court can enter orders appointing individuals, examiners and 22 trustees under 1104. And were Congress is provided a power 23 in one place but not another, Section 105 cannot be used to 24 give the court more powers.

25 And one other thing, Your Honor, is that we found

1 very problematic and was set forth of course in our 2 pleading. But the motion asks for the Court to bless 3 certain liability protections that are wholly unnecessary 4 for the Court to do. The trust stands on its own. It's an 5 agreement that the trustees are being asked to sign that was 6 orchestrated and put into place by Alex Jones and Free 7 Speech Systems. And, Your Honor, it can determine what 8 their -- if they're going to agree to that, they can agree 9 to that. They don't need the Court to do that. The 10 agreement was entered before it ever even -- these cases 11 were filed, Your Honor, before they ever came to court.

12 So it is our position that not only does the Court 13 not have authority to do it, but under the Code at least 14 Your Honor -- it is not necessary, either.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Ruff, in terms of the timing 16 question if we don't go forward on the CRO motion and on the 17 trustee motion, do you have a sense of timing?

18 MR. RUFF: Your Honor, I think we can use at least 19 21 days from the date that they were originally proposed. I 20 don't see what emergency there is. Mr. Schwartz has already 21 exercised authority on behalf of the Debtors by signing 22 these petitions.

23 THE COURT: The only question that came to my mind 24 on -- you know, and maybe Mr. Schwartz will answer the 25 question -- is somebody needs to work on schedules and, you

1 know, the bread and butter bankruptcy materials and start to 2 answer questions, and Ms. Haselden has questions or the 3 trustee has basic questions. I doubt that there's any bank 4 accounts or any -- your know, or anything. I just want to 5 make sure that there's -- but I guess Mr. Lee has given me 6 some comfort that they're there. It's the only one that 7 makes me think, you know, should we have someone -- but 8 maybe Mr. Schwartz is going to tell me that he can do that 9 work. And if he can do that work, then I'm okay with the 10 timing on that.

11 MR. RUFF: Your Honor, my response to that, to 12 your question would be simply this. Your Honor, these 13 individuals were put into place. Take a step back. These 14 companies were -- these entities were 100 percent wholly 15 owned and controlled by Alex Jones prior to the trust being 16 put into place. And they were given authority pursuant to 17 those documents, pursuant to things that were done in 18 advance of the bankruptcy case.

19 Your Honor, the court wasn't necessary for them to 20 have authority at that point. I don't see that it's 21 necessary for them to have authority now as a 327 22 professional if that's what they're going to seek for the 23 CRO's employment under. That has more to do with their 24 ability to be -- not only to act on behalf of the Debtors, 25 but also to be compensated and the duties that they're going

1 to run under the Code.

2 But every professional that comes in prior to a 3 bankruptcy case still has duties and still has an obligation
4 to act. If it all blows up, Your Honor, if there is no case
5 here, if Mr. Jones decides that he doesn't want to fund, 6 then that's really on Mr. Jones. These companies don't 7 operate, they don't have employees. This is not a situation 8 where if, for lack of a better word, these cases crater, 9 that we are going to see employees of these companies suffer 10 and be without a job and without a source of income.

11 There's not trade creditors out there or other parties who 12 are not going to receive goods and services.

13 Your Honor, the only person here who might be 14 harmed is Alex Jones. And because these cases appear to be 15 -- at least it's questionable to why we're even here. But 16 they appear to be orchestrated by him to limit his liability 17 and the liability of Free Speech Systems. So I don't even 18 know that it really even matters. It's to his benefit. He 19 wants these cases to go, then he can decide to fund these 20 cases. If he doesn't want them to go, to try and do 21 whatever it is that he's trying to do, then he can pull the 22 purse strings and back off and these cases can be dismissed, 23 which perhaps they should.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 MR. BEATTY: Your Honor, if I may. I represent a

1 group of creditors who I am going refer to as the Texas
2 Claimants.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. BEATTY: And these are the cases that 5 ultimately -- one of which was scheduled to start on Monday.
6 This bankruptcy halted that process and slowed down 7 ultimately the liquidation of damages not only against the 8 Debtors -- I think that's relatively minor. We can see 9 within the context of what's already been filed that these 10 Debtors don't really operate a business. The bankruptcy
11 itself was filed to protect Alex Jones and to protect Free 12 Speech from having to face trial on Monday.

13 And I think Your Honor has looked at and seen some 14 of the issues that we identified initially. But I think 15 there's a lot more than that. And I think that we have 16 gateway and threshold issues that have to be answered before 17 anyone should go forward in deciding who is a trustee of a 18 trust that apparently has holes in the documents and will 19 need to be changed and who is going to be appointed to run 20 these, and so on and so forth.

21 So just as a preliminary issue, I have some 22 problem with saying that we're going to hear that in 20 more 23 days. Because I think this Court is going to need to decide 24 the propriety of this bankruptcy well in advance of that.
25 There are a lot of attorneys in this room right now.

1 There's a lot of billing that's going on that to me may be 2 wholly unnecessary. And all it's doing is causing delay.

3 And, Your Honor, I think one of the things we have 4 to decide right off the bat, is this case subject to 5 dismissal, is it subject to conversion, should it be a 6 Subchapter V even? Those questions have to be answered
7 before we spend that extra money. And what we've already 8 seen in the PSA, that plan support agreement, is if you did 9 any of those things, that plan support agreement is dead.
10 If this isn't a Subchapter V, dead. Dismissed, dead.
11 Converted to a seven, dead. There is no intent on funding 12 unless they can effectively force third-party releases into 13 a bankruptcy plan. That's not permitted in the Fifth 14 Circuit. This is a near (indiscernible) opportunity for 15 them. They are trying to get a release for Alex Jones and 16 for Free Speech. And they are attempting to do it without 17 the transparency that's inherent to a bankruptcy process.
18 Because when you look at those agreements, certainly the 19 trustees have some opportunity to look at budgets for Free 20 Speech, for Mr. Jones. But when you look at the agreement, 21 at best, there's a weak, toothless oversight board who 22 doesn't necessarily have any right to look at any of these 23 confidential documents. So I think the threshold question 24 for this Court before we move forward, before we do anything 25 else, is whether or not this case should be dismissed.

1 The Fifth Circuit says that good faith implies an 2 honest intent and genuine desire on the part of the 3 petitioner to use the statutory process to effect a plan of 4 reorganization and not merely as a device to serve some 5 sinister or unworthy purpose.

6 And let me tell you, I think we've got a sinister
7 and unworthy purpose here. I don't think -- and even if I 8 am wrong on that, we don't have an actual intent to 9 reorganize here. And I say that because you can look at the 10 Schwartz declaration which was filed with every single one 11 of the petitions.

12 And I want to read a paragraph. It's Paragraph 8.
13 "I have learned that the Debtors have no purpose other than 14 to hold assets which may be used by other entities. They 15 undertake no business activities. They do not sell, rent, 16 or lease to others anything. Their assets do not generate 17 any income for them. They have no bank accounts and cannot 18 pay money to anyone for any reason. They have no debt other 19 than liabilities, other than those related to pending or 20 potential litigation. For these reasons, they have no 21 financial statements or books of account, and they do not 22 file income tax returns."

23 I don't know what we are trying to reorganize 24 here. We're not setting up a business to contain them in 25 the future, we're channeling settlements and forcing it down

1 Plaintiff's throats. They want to use a claim estimation 2 procedure, and it's transparent why that needs to occur to 3 them, because they want to face the state court. We can all 4 say we have disagreements about what the value of those 5 claims are worth. I am certain if you ask the Defense 6 attorneys from the state court litigations, they would tell 7 you none of the claims are worth much.

8 But even without ever talking to any of the 9 plaintiffs, you see an agreement that suggests there is 10 going to be $2 million put in and a stream of income worth 11 another five. So at a minimum before we can even negotiate 12 with them, they're telling this Court $7 million in 13 liability. And the claims estimation procedure, I don't 14 think that -- that's not a process where we have a lot of 15 different claims that will take forever to decide.

16 Again, two of my clients' claims would have been 17 decided. The dollar amount would have been done. The other 18 claims are all set for trial in state court. But there's 19 just a series of poison pills in the trust agreement and the 20 PSA. If you lift a stay, that -- no more payments. No more 21 payments from Jones. If there is a remand, no payments. On 22 and on and on. Conversion, dismissal, anything. It's all 23 dead.

24 This is a situation where the first question for 25 this Court is is this proper. And I don't want to see all

1 the parties here continuing to spend money on what I think 2 is tertiary before that actual question gets answered.

3 And, Your Honor, the simple issue is that you can 4 look at it and see that it will fail just based on the 5 question of whether or not they are a Sub V debtor. You
6 know? To be a Sub V debtor, you have to be a person engaged 7 in commercial or business activities. Mr. Schwartz has 8 already told us neither of those items are true. They don't 9 accept money, they don't get paid. They don't pay anything.
10 They don't operate.

11 So if Sub V is inappropriate, the PSA is down.
12 There is no money. These are the things we need to look at 13 first, Your Honor. I don't think we need to make any other 14 decisions.

15 MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you. Your Honor, Randy
16 Williams for David Wheeler --

17 THE COURT: Good morning. Just get to a mic. I 18 just want to make sure they can hear you on the...

19 MR. WILLIAMS: Sorry, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: No worries. Good morning.

21 MR. WILLIAMS: David Wheeler and the other 22 Connecticut plaintiffs.

23 I think Mr. Beatty has very eloquently and 24 concisely laid out the similar concerns that our clients
25 have and that the fundamental issue here is in light of Mr.

1 Schwartz's declaration, what are we doing here? And, Your 2 Honor, I will for the record object to Mr. Schwartz giving 3 any further testimony beyond what he has already declared in 4 that declaration today. Because what have we learned so far
5 today? That we want to get trustees approved for a trust 6 that the trustees don't even agree to what it's going to 7 look like or say. And we don't know when we're going to get 8 it or when we're going to have it. And we're talking about 9 setting hearings and how long we can go, but we don't know 10 when they're going to get a trust agreement that they're 11 happy with or when we're going to be able to see it.

12 And no clock should start ticking and no deadline 13 should run on us until they come forward and give notice of 14 what it is that they want to do. You've got a PSA we've 15 talked about. It's not a PSA, Your Honor. It was 16 negotiated between Alex Jones and himself. Who stood up on 17 the other side for anybody? Because again, look at Mr.
18 Schwartz's declaration to these petitions. These entities 19 don't qualify for Subchapter V. They don't even qualify to 20 be in the Chapter 11. This has all been done for the 21 benefit of Alex Jones and Free Speech.

22 And let's talk about that for a minute. Your 23 Honor, these cases that were being litigated in Texas and 24 Connecticut have been going on for years. And in the course
25 of those cases, these Debtors, Mr. Jones and Free Speech,

1 have all suffered death penalty sanctions because of their 2 conduct before those courts. They removed the Connecticut
3 cases, they removed the Texas cases back to (indiscernible) 4 court. That's not the first time that's happened. In 5 Connecticut I know it's happened at least twice, and twice
6 they've been sent back. We've already filed an emergency 7 motion in Connecticut to remand that case, and the 8 Connecticut judge has said that the trial date as to Mr.
9 Jones and Free Speech in September of this year that's 10 already been set and was already pending, as soon as she 11 gets the case back is going to stick. And again, if they 12 wanted to estimate these claims and know what the real 13 liability was and they've really spent $10 million in legal 14 fees that ended up in them having their pleadings struck and 15 death penalty sanctions, then why didn't they go to court on 16 Monday and see what happened in that case? Because that 17 would have laid a groundwork that would have then led to 18 something in the way of putting together a plan.

19 Your Honor, being on the bench, you have a lot of 20 experience with Chapter 11 cases I know in your practice.
21 And you know that if there's a real desire to put together a 22 plan and bring people together and forge a settlement
23 between Claimants and Debtors, that there's some negotiation 24 that goes on with someone pre-petition. And here, it's 25 nonexistent. They came up with all of this on their own.

1 Actually, Mr. Jones did it. And he's put $750,000
2 into the trust that's already -- you ask about Mr. Schwartz.
3 And based on what I read, Your Honor, Mr. Schwartz has 4 already exhausted over $30,000 of his $50,000 retainer that 5 he got. He filed these cases. And if his declaration, 6 which I accept as true, then Your Honor, filing schedules
7 and statements in these cases with no bank accounts, no tax 8 returns, no income, no expenses, has got to be a pretty easy 9 process.

10 But mostly I want to get back to we've got to get 11 to the fundamental issue here. We've had somebody who, 12 because of his behavior and the behavior of the entities 13 that he owned and controlled and ongoing litigations in 14 multiple courts in Texas and Connecticut face death penalty 15 sanctions. And Connecticut, those death penalty sanctions 16 were appealed and he lost. And they were upheld. That's 17 how bad the conduct has been. And now we're in another 18 court here trying to do a Subchapter V where you don't get a 19 Committee and have a say. Only the Debtor can file a plan.
20 Your Honor, this just isn't right.

21 One of the colleagues from Connecticut in our 22 initial meeting with us said this process is illegitimate.
23 And at the time, I was thinking that's a really strong word.
24 And then I slept on it. And I told Mr. Chapple, I said, 25 well, I've got to apologize to her because she's absolutely

1 right. This is illegitimate. And before this Court begins 2 taking steps to move things forward or treat things as 3 first-day hearings, the Court needs to look at whether or 4 not this is proper and appropriate, and we need to be taking 5 all those other steps.

6 Again, we don't even have a trust agreement.
7 That's the first thing we get told today is when -- and I
8 didn't hear Mr. Lee say it. He said he didn't want to go 9 forward with it. But it was counsel for these proposed 10 trustees, said, well, we don't have a trust agreement. So 11 what are we going to have? And why are we talking about 12 what it might be when -- why aren't we looking at the issue 13 again of why we're here?

14 And another thing, Your Honor, that's troubling to 15 my clients -- and with all due respect to the Court, why are 16 we in Victoria? We've pulled the records on these three 17 entities from the Secretary of State up through November of 18 last year. Every information report that's been filed, 19 every document that's been filed on these entities says that 20 they're domiciled, their assets and their principal place of 21 business was a PO box in Austin, Texas. So why do these 22 cases get filed in Victoria? And if Mr. Schwartz's 23 declaration is true, then how do we get to Victoria if we 24 don't have any employees, if we don't have any business 25 until the last umpteen years that these companies have been

1 in business with always saying we were in Austin -- or not 2 in business, that they were in existence. I apologize, Your 3 Honor.

4 So again, we do intend to file an emergency motion 5 to dismiss because we want dismissal considered before we 6 move forward with any of this first-day issues or having 7 anyone talk about -- I don't know what information Mr.
8 Schwartz can give us beyond his declaration. And again, I 9 don't -- we are very concerned that to the extent the Court 10 comments on and takes testimony in this case, it begins to 11 legitimize the process. But again, I agree with my 12 Connecticut counsel, I will --

13 THE COURT: Let me just tell you though, today was 14 the first day and there were two motions set. And I read 15 objections that were filed to them, and no one is going 16 forward today on anything.

17 I'm giving comments based upon things that I 18 thought about when I read the overall case, read the 19 documents. I don't think anyone should read anything other 20 than that. I had two motions in front of me, and I found 21 out they're not going forward today. If someone files 22 another motion, I'll take that up and consider it.

23 So if people want me to consider something, then 24 they'll file something and I will consider it. And it 25 sounds like you are. And when that's filed, I'll consider

1 it. But right now, I have two motions and I'm trying to 2 find out -- the Debtor has filed two motions and then asked 3 for consideration of them. I've got a duty to think about 4 the timing of those questions, and I'm raising other 5 questions. And if somebody files something, then we'll take 6 that up. But somebody has to file something for me to 7 consider it.

8 MR. WILLIAMS: Both of those motions are premised 9 on a trust document that you've now been told the two 10 trustees that you were asked to appoint, don't approve of 11 them. So again --

12 THE COURT: That's why I'm asking the question.
13 I'm telling you --

14 MR. WILLIAMS: But we don't have notice of what 15 it's going to be or what we're going to do. (indiscernible) 16 set something --

17 THE COURT: I agree with you.

18 MR. WILLIAMS: We don't know what it's going to 19 be.

20 THE COURT: That's why I'm asking questions about 21 timing and what that looks like. I don't know. But I think 22 Mr. Lee is going to have to give me an answer to that 23 question. And I agree with you. We can't set a hearing 24 until there's a document that everyone can look at. Not 25 just me, but other parties and have an opportunity to review

1 and observe, and Subchapter V trustee, your client. I don't 2 know what that timing looks like.

3 So I don't know whether 20 days, 60 days makes 4 sense. I think they're going to have to tell us when that 5 document stops moving, and then we can set a date. And if 6 there are other motions that are filed before then, then 7 I'll consider those motions as well.

8 We just have to run a transparent -- and a process
9 that's based upon -- and I'm not saying you're saying 10 anything different. But you need to run a process where 11 there's transparency and there's due process afforded to all 12 parties. And I'm not going to jam anyone on an emergency 13 motion based on a document that someone has seen 24 hours in 14 advance. I'm not doing that. So let's just -- I think Mr.
15 Lee is going to have to -- and maybe with the input of Mr.
16 Okin. And maybe that's not today. But I don't think -- and 17 maybe it's just continued to a date to be determined. But I 18 think on the CRO motion, they need to -- someone needs to 19 tell me when they want to come back. And on the trust 20 document, I think we're going to have to find out. And if 21 there's another motion or something else that gets filed, 22 we'll take that up in due course.

23 And I don't think I'm -- I'm not disagreeing with 24 anything of what you're saying. I'm just highlighting for 25 the parties in the room and for those who may be listening

1 that, you know, we're going to run a process based on the 2 federal rules of bankruptcy procedure. We're going to 3 follow the Bankruptcy Code, and we're going to follow due 4 process to all parties in interest.

5 So I don't -- you know, I'm commenting on 6 documents that were in a motion that was before me. That's 7 it. I don't think anybody should read one way -- I'm not 8 legitimizing or delegitimizing anything. I think I've 9 probably asked more questions than Mr. Lee probably wanted 10 me to ask.

11 I'm just kidding. I'm just kidding, Mr. Lee.

12 MR. WILLIAMS: Respectfully, Your Honor, with 13 regard to asking Mr. Lee or Mr. Okin, it's Mr. Battaglia or 14 Mr. Jordan, whom I'm glad announced today whom they were 15 representing, since when they filed their notices of 16 appearance, they chose not to identify their clients in 17 those documents. I did see in the attachment to the trust 18 document for the budget that they had gotten retainers to 19 represent Mr. Jones.

20 It's interesting that a trust that's supposed to 21 be for the benefit of injured parties -- and again, 22 liability has already been established. That's not an issue 23 here. The only issue is the dollar amount of that. And 24 again, if you really wanted to have that decided, you could 25 have good clues starting next Monday, but Mr. Jones chose

1 not to do that. He created this bizarre system that we see 2 here, which we still don't know what it is. But it's not 3 the Debtor or the trustees, who are not actually trustees, 4 who can answer your questions. It's Mr. Jones and Free 5 Speech. Because as Your Honor has pointed out, they're the 6 ones who are using their money, and they want releases for 7 that, as Mr. Beatty has pointed out. But they don't want to 8 come into this Court. They don't even want to have their 9 lawyers file notice of appearance that identify who they are 10 appearing on behalf of. They want the benefit of bankruptcy 11 without being in bankruptcy. We'd be having a whole other 12 discussion at be at a whole other position today, Mr. Beatty 13 and I, and Mr. Jones and Free Speech for part of it. But 14 the truth is, they're not. They're staying outside of it.
15 And that's not right. They shouldn't be -- they're getting 16 the advantage of the stay of these debtors to keep that case 17 from going forward on Monday, and they paid $750,000 of all 18 these professionals, plus some folks on the screen there, to 19 get them to make that happen. And our folks are just 20 waiting to liquidate their claims, claims that need to be 21 liquidated in state court that shouldn't be liquidated as 22 part of a bankruptcy because the Court's jurisdiction, if it 23 did have jurisdiction, would be tenuous at best.

24 But again, Your Honor, I don't have anything else
25 to add at this time. I appreciate that we are not going

1 forward today. We had only filed an emergency motion to 2 continue. We do intend to object -- well, we intended to 3 object to the motions as filed. Since they're going to 4 change, we don't know what we're going to do to those. But 5 we will be filing an emergency motion to dismiss these cases 6 on the grounds that Mr. Beatty has raised and I echoed 7 today.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

9 MR. BATTAGLIA: Your Honor, may I briefly be 10 heard? This is Ray Battaglia.

11 THE COURT: Yes. You've identified yourself.
12 There's a lot of boxes, so I appreciate you saying that.

13 MR. BATTAGLIA: I'm not going to address all of 14 the things that are before the Court, but there are a couple 15 questions that were raised, and much has been said about, I 16 don't know, maybe some (indiscernible) responsive how my 17 appearance was entered and how this trust agreement is not a 18 final document.

19 And I think the Court should appreciate that the 20 trust agreement was negotiated somewhat in the blind.
21 That's not to suggest that Mr. Lee did not act on behalf of 22 his clients in reviewing it. But at the end of the day, 23 parties who need the most input are the trustees. And the 24 interim trustee has literally no power under this document, 25 as appropriate. So the appointment of the trustees is a

1 very important step in getting that document to final.

2 I don't think Mr. Okin -- and he can comment on 3 this. I don't think we're talking about a wholesale rewrite 4 of this document. I think there are issues that he brought 5 up this week to us that we were expecting, a first turn of 6 the document. And of course the third-party funders are 7 amenable to reasonable modifications to that document. But 8 I think that the suggestion that somehow there is something 9 nefarious about this being less than a complete document is 10 absurd. We negotiated as best we could a document that 11 serves the purpose of trying to pay allowed claims in full.
12 And the other thing I think that's missing here is that 13 should the case have gone to trial in Austin, there's a 14 significant likelihood that there would be no money for 15 anybody. And that's the intent here, is to try to preserve 16 a means to pay allowed claims. And that's what this system 17 is set up to do. I could dispute a lot of other things, but 18 I think those are the most important thing.

19 I think, Judge, your comment about April 30th, of 20 course we're not going to hold an April 30th deadline, but 21 we do need this to move forward with some speed so that we 22 know that we've got people we can talk to on the other side 23 to get these documents into final shape.

24 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Anyone else wish to 25 address the Court at this time? Is there anyone on the line

1 who wishes to address the Court? Hit five-star. Okay.

2 MR. LEE: Good morning, Your Honor. For the 3 record, Kyung Lee. I want to apologize. My bladder is not 4 as strong as it used to be when I was younger, and that's 5 the reason I took a little break.

6 I just want to say one thing if you allow me to 7 put Mr. Schwartz on without any objection from this 8 audience. I just need to tell you, the parties have been 9 working here very hard, in good faith to create a proposal 10 to, one, pay creditors, and two, to pay them in an equal 11 fashion. I think those are really pretty legitimate 12 purposes of the Bankruptcy Code which I feel very good about 13 saying to you and to this entire group here, that I feel 14 very proud of being able to bring to this Court a process to 15 do that.

16 Yes, it may have some warts on it. And yes, it's 17 not perfect. But it's a proper purpose of this Court and to 18 this process in my view, for the 40 years I've been doing 19 this, to bring to this Court a structure that allows for 20 resolution of the bickering that's been going on for the 21 last ten years in which Mr. Schwartz and I have brought to 22 the table on Day 1 of a bankruptcy case $10 million to be 23 made available and for equal sharing of that money among 24 creditors, and yet I hear nothing, nothing but complaining 25 by those who actually want the money or who are entitled to 1 the money.

2 And so I say to you, Your Honor, there must be 3 something else going on for people to complain about that 4 when for ten years they've had nothing to be able to collect
5 on any of their judgments. And I find that quite upsetting 6 on my part to have worked this hard to bring to the table 7 this kind of a structure and hear nothing but complaints 8 when the effort has been done solely to bring to the table a 9 structure that has fiduciaries watching over this process 10 for the next five years and bringing $10 million to the 11 table as a first offer on the table with the parties that 12 they believe caused all this injury.

13 And so with that said, Your Honor, if I may, I'd 14 like to be able to show this Court what we've done, why 15 we're here, and what we're trying to do. And again, in a 16 non-adversarial fashion to try to present to you --

17 THE COURT: I don't know if that's possible today, 18 Mr. Lee.

19 MR. LEE: Again, I'm going to tone down my 20 rhetoric in my presentation. But I didn't have a 21 presentation for you --

22 THE COURT: Yeah. If it's in the form of a 23 presentation, I have no problem with it. If we're going to 24 -- the declaration isn't admitted into the record. So 25 there's no evidence and there's no motion to go forward. So

1 I don't need to take evidence about anything. There's 2 nothing going forward today and there's nothing that Mr.
3 Schwartz -- I want to make sure he's clear about this -- 4 that will be used in connection with support of any motion
5 that may or may not go forward today. We don't have dates 6 on anything. So if what Mr. Schwartz wants to do is provide 7 what typically happens in a Chapter 11 case, someone 8 provides background information about why we're here and 9 what you intend to accomplish, I've got no problem with 10 that. I just want to make sure that everybody is really 11 clear, this is not going to serve as evidentiary in support 12 for any motion because there is no motion before the Court 13 today.

14 I will also tell everyone there is clearly -- and 15 I understand it -- a lot of emotion on both sides. It's 16 completely justifiable, and I understand it. My job is to 17 not focus on that.

18 MR. LEE: Yes, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: My job is to rule on matters that are 20 before me, the legal issues that are before me. There are 21 parties who are being referenced who are not here, but who 22 are certainly parties in interest. They are party 23 contributors. And I've got to consider that. There are due 24 process issues that are being raised, there are motions that 25 sound like they're going to get filed. And when we take

1 them up, I may rule on them based on the evidence that is 2 before me.

3 I think some of the concerns, Mr. Lee, are legit.

4 MR. WILLIAMS: And I understand, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: And there are legitimate concerns
6 about how we're here based on the papers. Mr. Schwartz 7 wants to talk today. Give him an opportunity to talk.

8 MR. RUFF: Your Honor, I would actually object to 9 -- I don't know -- what is he going to inform the Court 10 about?

11 THE COURT: Look, what I am anticipating -- and 12 Mr. Lee will have to (indiscernible) -- is kind of a generic 13 Chapter 11 presentation. I have questions about these --

14 MR. RUFF: Well, I have a lot of questions too, 15 Your Honor. I think everybody in this room has a lot of 16 questions. But Mr. Schwartz is being put up as the chief 17 restructuring officer.

18 THE COURT: No, he's not being put up for that 19 reason. If he's going to stand -- if Mr. Schwartz wants, he 20 can stand here and tell me about background information
21 about the case. This is not going to be used as testimony 22 in any way. Because if that's the case, then Mr. Schwartz 23 better be ready for a lot of folks cross-examining him 24 today. If this --

25 MR. RUFF: Will there be an opportunity to ask

1 questions of Mr. Schwartz?

2 THE COURT: If Mr. Schwartz is going to speak.

3 Mr. Schwartz can answer questions.

4 MR. LEE: I have no problems with that, Your

5 Honor. Mr. Schwartz is --

6 THE COURT: That's what I'm saying. If Mr.

7 Schwartz is going to -- just like every Chapter 11 case, if

8 there are questions of the person who stands up and provides

9 a presentation, folks get to ask questions.

10 MR. LEE: We intend to run a transparent process,

11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: I'm just saying this is not going to 13 be where Mr. Schwartz makes a statement and no one gets to 14 ask questions. If Mr. Schwartz wants to make a statement, 15 people get to ask questions.

16 MR. RUFF: I guess --

17 THE COURT: I have questions. And I'm going to 18 get my questions answered is what I'm saying. And you may 19 like the questions I ask.

20 MR. RUFF: I liked the questions that you asked

21 already, Your Honor, as I said at the outset. And again,

22 this case begs many questions. I just -- again, you are 23 here today for a specific purpose.

24 THE COURT: I agree.

25 MR. RUFF: We don't even know what these cases are

1 about now. The Debtors admittedly, Mr. Oaken --

2 THE COURT: That's what I'm trying to find out.

3 MR. RUFF: Well, okay, very well. But whatever he 4 says today might be without any merit, because it might all 5 change is what I think we heard today.

6 THE COURT: I guess that's what I'm saying. Isn't 7 that something you would want to know?

8 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor. Until we have a 9 document that we know is --

10 THE COURT: I'm not talking about the trust
11 agreement. I'm talking about general background information 12 about who does IW help. That's the question I have. What 13 do they do? Are they still conducting business activities?
14 He says no, but I'd like to hear it from him. Are they 15 conducting commercial activities? I'd like to know the 16 answer to that question. Folks, I get to ask questions. I 17 get it, you get a check, but I get to ask questions.

18 MR. WILLIAMS: I have no problem with you asking 19 questions, Your Honor. But with respect to the declaration 20 -- and I know it was offered as an exhibit -- it is part of 21 the record in all three of these cases, at least one 22 administered cases. I would ask that the Court take 23 judicial notice of that declaration and make it part of any 24 record about what he is going to talk about. Because I 25 think all your questions are actually answered in that

1 declaration. And if he is going to say something different 2 today than what's in --

3 THE COURT: You don't know that, because you don't 4 know the questions I'm going to ask, Mr. Williams.

5 MR. WILLIAMS: Well, he talks about bank accounts 6 and --

7 THE COURT: You don't know what I'm going to ask, 8 Mr. Williams.

9 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor. I object to there 10 being any testimony today.

11 THE COURT: There's no testimony. Mr. Williams, 12 you've been part of a million Chapter 11 cases. People get 13 to present information at the beginning, at the outset of a 14 case. That's all -- and if Mr. Lee goes too far, I'm going 15 to shut it down. It's really simple what's happening here.
16 In every Chapter 11 case, someone gets to make a 17 presentation and the Court gets to ask basic questions about 18 the Debtor. Why are you here? How did you get here? Who 19 are these three entities? What are they doing? Why are we 20 in Victoria? I get to ask a bunch of questions. It sounds 21 like you would want to know some of the answers to some of 22 these questions. Maybe there are questions you don't want 23 to know the answer to, but you get to ask questions.

24 MR. WILLIAMS: Again, Your Honor, respectfully, I 25 have no problem with you asking any questions that you have

1 about anything related to this. I do have a problem with 2 Mr. Schwartz making any presentation because this is not a 3 typical case. These folks are victims, not creditors. The 4 liability has been established. The only issue is how much.
5 Mr. Lee wants to take credit for a document --

6 THE COURT: I'm not doing any of that.

7 MR. WILLIAMS: -- that's been (indiscernible) that 8 doesn't exist.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Williams, I understand. But you 10 have to -- you said you have no problem with me asking 11 questions.

12 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Okay. So, Mr. Schwartz, can I ask you 14 a few questions?

15 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes, Your Honor. (indiscernible)
16 please?

17 THE COURT: You can stand right there. You can 18 take that microphone right there.

19 It sounds like you have a short presentation you'd 20 like to make. What would you like to tell the Court?

21 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, (indiscernible).

22 THE COURT: If you can just get the microphone a 23 little bit closer to you.

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: What we're trying to do -- and I 25 got involved (indiscernible) in this process that

1 (indiscernible) the strategic plan, which (indiscernible).
2 But I was involved after that in a lot of the other matters.
3 But essentially to set up in a single location, a single 4 venue the claims -- the claims determination process, the 5 damage determinization process in a manner independent of 6 any influence by Mr. Jones or any of his associates and to 7 negotiate with Mr. Jones, which is what we did, creating the 8 fund, the initial fund is $9.8 million, to pay the claims 9 over a period of five years under the supervision of the 10 trust. That's my legal description of what we're trying to 11 do. The goal was to pay off other claims.

12 Mr. Jones also, as everyone has heard, put up 13 $725,000, and we'll continue dialogue with him. I would 14 call it a negation (indiscernible) more serious money than 15 that, we need to put up $2 million. And then I discovered a 16 royalty that was being paid to Mr. Jones that will have 17 documentation to support this. The (indiscernible) that was 18 given to me was at some point in time IWHealth was the party
19 that generated or created that royalty and that Mr. Jones 20 for some reason at some point in time (indiscernible) paid 21 the royalty directly to Mr. Jones. They got to have that 22 royalty back. And he agreed to give us that. And then also 23 we negotiated that $250,000 a quarter over five years to get 24 our total fund up to $9.8 million.

25 This was a negotiated process. It was not Mr.

1 Jones telling us what he was going to do and us saying okay,
2 fine, we'll take that. I had no idea who Mr. Jones was. I
3 didn't even know until April 4th. And Mr. Lee approached me
4 and I had to go find out who is this guy. I had never heard 5 of him. I hadn't heard of Infowars. I was not very 6 interested in conspiracy theories. (indiscernible) landing 7 on the moon, and I don't pay much attention to it. So that 8 was the -- just of how we got here.

9 A little bit about the structure. There are two 10 entities in the Jones business enterprise, two legal 11 entities that are responsible for all of the money 12 generation. FSS, which is the marketing arm that reaches 13 out to his audience and sells everything from t-shirts to 14 vitamins and mineral supplements and emergency food 15 supplies, (indiscernible) that you could use. Everything 16 you would expect, from books and whatever else. That -- 17 most of that inventory is supplied to FSS by a company 18 called PQPR. And they are --

19 MR. LEE: Let me interject. There's an Exhibit 6, 20 if I may approach, Your Honor, that's already in the 21 binders. It's corporate diagram that might help the 22 audience as well as the Court.

23 THE COURT: Just refer to a docket.

24 MR. LEE: It's Exhibit 6 in the witness's binder 25 book, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

2 MR. SCHWARTZ: And if you look at the PQPR
3 (indiscernible) supplies most of the product, not all of it.
4 Third-party vendors also supply the product, too. But 5 that's where the money comes from.

6 As you know, or they know, Jones and his companies 7 have been severely -- the word is they were cast out 8 (indiscernible) or they have had problems (indiscernible)
9 banks. But any kind of service. So they are very careful, 10 conscious, of trying to maintain their current vendors.

11 One of the concerns that came up, and we're 12 looking at this, was the question of filing the bankruptcy
13 is that that would probably push FSS over the top and it 14 would lose all of its or most of its vendor connections and 15 it could no longer survive. In 2018 and 2019 -- I'm working 16 off memory here. I'm 71 years old, so it doesn't always 17 work. But there was something like -- FSS generally did 18 something like 76 to 79, almost $80 million of revenues in 19 those two years. That's a significant amount of money.

20 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if I could respectfully 21 -- we are hearing about entities that he is not CRO for and 22 that aren't debtors in this case. And if we're going to 23 have a presentation about the debtors in this case, I don't 24 need to know what their strategy was about why Mr. Jones 25 elected not to file another --

1 THE COURT: I have a question, Mr. Williams.

2 Thank you. Please continue.

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: Continue? Okay, 76, 78 million
4 dollars of revenue from those two entities. The -- if you 5 look at the impact of the litigation in 2021, I would 6 estimate (indiscernible) books be closed for 2021. But 7 based on the merchant receipts from the credit card 8 operations, the revenue 2021 is approximately $56 million.
9 $20 million less than it had been in the past.

10 THE COURT: So at some point over the last -- 11 let's just call it -- you said you (indiscernible) around 12 April 4th. So let's say sometime early this month.

13 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

14 THE COURT: (indiscernible) with respect to the 15 three entities that are in bankruptcy today.

16 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

17 THE COURT: So let's talk a little bit about that.
18 Can you just tell me a little bit about each -- your 19 understanding as to each entity that's in bankruptcy. So 20 I'll start with the first one. Infowars LLC. It's InfoW 21 LLC, which was formerly known as Infowars.

22 MR. SCHWARTZ: Correct.

23 THE COURT: When did it change its name?

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: It was changed in April.

25 THE COURT: In April? Do you remember when?

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: No, I don't.

2 THE COURT: Sometime before the filing?

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: Oh, before the filing. It was 4 shortly before the filing as I recall.

5 THE COURT: Okay. And --

6 MR. LEE: And, Your Honor, if I may interject
7 here. Part of the reason the name was changed --

8 THE COURT: I don't want to get into the part of 9 the reason the name was -- I just want to understand.
10 Because at this point -- what does InfoW LLC do?

11 MR. SCHWARTZ: InfoW LLC owns the trade name 12 Infowars. Infowars is the name that FSS uses to market its 13 products, and that is the name that Alex's podcasts go out 14 under. So it is the trademark. It's the Coca-Cola for the 15 (indiscernible).

16 THE COURT: I won't hold you to these numbers, but 17 just help me understand. So let's just say within the 40 18 days before the filing, how much cash did -- or maybe on the 19 petition date, how much cash do you think InfoW holds?

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: InfoW has no cash. Up until the 21 time it was transferred to the trust, it was owned by Alex 22 as just part of his business operation. I don't know why.

23 THE COURT: What sources of revenues in the last 24 90 days?

25 MR. SCHWARTZ: InfoW (indiscernible) he annualized

1 his revenue (indiscernible) for use of the trade name that 2 it owns.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. so let's turn to 4 IWHealth LLC. Okay. Let's just -- what does IWHealth LLC 5 do?

6 MR. SCHWARTZ: IWHealth holds a royalty interest.
7 And it's referred to a royalty. And what it is, it's a
8 commission that is paid by Youngevity to the Jones
9 enterprise for the sale of Youngevity products on the FSS.
10 But that royalty started in April, generally before the 11 filing. It is now paid to IWHealth. That was the amount I 12 said we discovered and I said has to come back here to --

13 THE COURT: Do you know how much that amount was?

14 MR. SCHWARTZ: About $38,000 a month.

15 THE COURT: $38,000?

16 MR. SCHWARTZ: A month.

17 THE COURT: A month?

18 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: Is it currently receiving?

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And so I think you mentioned that FSS
22 sells in markets. It's a non-debtor. Does IWHealth sell 23 and market anything or does it just receive that royalty?

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: It just receives that royalty.

25 THE COURT: Okay, thank you. Was it receiving any

1 royalty interest before? Like let's just say with in the 90 2 days before the filing?

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well...

4 THE COURT: Go ahead. I'll tell you why I'm 5 asking. I don't want you to be confused by my question.
6 You mentioned that there was a direct pay at some point, and 7 then you stopped. Or you stepped in and said no, it's got 8 to go directly to IW health, the royalty payment. What was 9 the pre-bankruptcy arrangement before you...

10 MR. SCHWARTZ: Pre-bankruptcy, the royalty was 11 sent to Alex Jones directly, his personal bank account.

12 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

13 MR. SCHWARTZ: And I discovered that 14 (indiscernible) that was a Monday. Because that's when I 15 went to Austin. So prior to that date, it was not receiving 16 any royalty..

17 THE COURT: Okay. And then there's one more.
18 Prison Planet TV LLC.

19 MR. SCHWARTZ: Prison Planet owns a number of 20 videos that were produced and developed by Alex Jones' 21 enterprise. I think eight, 10, 12 or something like that.
22 There's a list of them.

23 THE COURT: Aside from own them, what does it do?
24 It just owns them?

25 MR. SCHWARTZ: It's similar to...

1 THE COURT: InfoW?

2 MR. SCHWARTZ: InfoW. It just owns them.

3 THE COURT: How much cash do you think it held on 4 the petition date?

5 MR. SCHWARTZ: It held zero.

6 THE COURT: It held zero. Within the 90-day 7 period before the petition date, was it generating any 8 income?

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: The 90 days before -- so just like 10 InfoW, owned by Alex Jones a hundred percent. And half of 11 its assets were used (indiscernible) FSS. It was not 12 anything for that use.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. I guess I can ask you 14 and I can ask Mr. Lee. And I think Mr. Lee has already 15 asked the question. What do you believe the purpose of 16 these Chapter 11 cases is?

17 MR. SCHWARTZ: The purpose? The purpose is to 18 arrange to pay all of the plaintiffs the amount of their -- 19 let's say in a bankruptcy sense, their allowed claim in 20 full. That's the purpose.

21 THE COURT: So when the pleadings talk about 22 paying it in full, you are referring to a defined term in 23 the trust agreement that basically says whatever the court - 24 - whatever is allowed in the bankruptcy case, the amount of 25 that claim.

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. Does that contemplate payments
3 -- does the settlement then contemplate just the Debtors or 4 will it include a global settlement including the non-5 debtors that you've described earlier?

6 MR. SCHWARTZ: It includes the -- specially Alex
7 Jones and FSS.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: Because they are the source of the 10 funds to make the payment.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Schwartz, I will tell you, 12 there was a motion set for you for today. It sounds like 13 it's not going forward. I think those are all the questions 14 that I have for you. I think that is what is customary on a 15 first day I think to just ask, get a general understanding.
16 Are you aware of anything else in connection with the 17 bankruptcy case itself that you think I should know at this 18 time in terms of what may be coming?

19 Typically -- and I'm just saying this for folks
20 who are listening. It's very typical for a bankruptcy judge 21 to ask at the beginning of a case what might I expect in the 22 short-term future. I've been told by some folks they are 23 going to file a motion, and I'll take them up. And maybe 24 this is a question for Mr. Lee. What may I expect in the 25 short near-term.

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, Your Honor, I'm not a lawyer, 2 as you know.

3 THE COURT: No, no, no. You're not.

4 MR. SCHWARTZ: Mr. Lee (indiscernible) remand.
5 And that's coming I guess But I don't know -- I don't think 6 I'm qualified to talk about it.

7 THE COURT: No, no, no. I don't want you using 8 those words. That's completely fine. Thank you very much, 9 Mr. Schwartz.

10 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

11 MR. RUFF: Your Honor, could I just ask a couple 12 questions?

13 THE COURT: Yeah, go ahead. Just stand on the 14 other side.

15 MR. RUFF: Yeah, I'll just (indiscernible) the 16 microphone is -- there we go.

17 Mr. Schwartz, I just have a question. And it 18 relates to why we are here in Victoria. And on the 19 petitions, there was an address listed for the Debtors where 20 they were located, 5606 North Navarro, Victoria, Texas. Are 21 you familiar with that location?

22 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes, I am.

23 MR. RUFF: Okay. And do the Debtors have a lease 24 of that space? Is that what your understanding is?

25 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, it's executive suites. We

1 have two offices there. I guess that's some form of a 2 lease.

3 MR. RUFF: Okay. So who sits in those office?

4 MR. SCHWARTZ: There's one desk and one chair and 5 one desk and one chair. So that's...

6 MR. RUFF: Do you know when those leases were 7 entered into?

8 MR. SCHWARTZ: Early April I think.

9 MR. RUFF: So prior to that, prior to early April, 10 they weren't located there?

11 MR. SCHWARTZ: No.

12 MR. RUFF: Okay. Now, the petition that was 13 signed under penalty of perjury I believe says that for the 14 greater part of 180 days, the debtors were located at that -

16 MR. LEE: Objection, Your Honor. This is asking 17 for a legal answer. And if you want to talk about that, we 18 can talk about that.

19 THE COURT: Yeah. I think that's probably -- 20 well, it's a question. I think the trustee -- I think maybe 21 Mr. Schwartz probably -- you know, like with the remand, 22 maybe someone else can answer --

23 MR. RUFF: I won't ask for a legal conclusion, 24 Your Honor. I just want to make sure it's clear though that 25 it wasn't the greater part of 180 days that the Debtors were

1 located there.

2 MR. LEE: That's not an accurate question, Your 3 Honor. (indiscernible) Dallas, Judge Hale, these Debtors
4 had domicile in every location in the state of Texas for 180
5 days. So we can have an argument about that --

6 THE COURT: But we're not going to have it today.
7 What we're going to have is argument (indiscernible) motion 8 in front of the Court that the Court will then consider.
9 Today we're just going to ask very --

10 MR. RUFF: Your Honor, I was just asking the 11 question to figure out -- to get an idea of why we are here 12 in Victoria.

13 THE COURT: You can ask questions and people can 14 answer or not.

15 MR. RUFF: Do you have any idea -- so you had 16 mentioned that Mr. Jones is the one who is going to be 17 filing -- excuse me, funding this process.

18 MR. SCHWARTZ: Mr. Jones and FSS. Most of the 19 money come from -- of the $9.8, most of it will come from 20 FSS.

21 MR. RUFF: Okay. Ans is it your understanding 22 that both of those entities are also liable for the same 23 body of claims that we are here to try and deal with?

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, I must admit, I've not looked 25 at the petitions and complaints in the underlying cases. I

1 would be shocked if they were not. That's where the money 2 is at.

3 MR. RUFF: Okay. Any idea -- and again, only if 4 you actually know or whatever. But any idea or any 5 discussions as to why Mr. Jones didn't file for bankruptcy?

6 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

7 MR. RUFF: Okay. Do you know why? What was 8 discussed as to why he didn't file for bankruptcy?

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: I know the discussions because I
10 was involved in some of them. The discussions was, you 11 know, Infowars is a prominent trademark in the conspiracy 12 theories community, if you will. Alex Jones' name is 13 equally as prominent. And so the concern was 14 (indiscernible) FSS, FSS were concerned about losing 15 lenders. In Alex Jones' case, that it would somehow ruin -- 16 harm this trademark, his name and his ability to generate 17 funds, sell merchandise to these people.

18 MR. RUFF: So that's what was expressed to you at 19 least?

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: That was what we discussed.

21 MR. RUFF: And does that make sense to you, that 22 that would -- I mean, he is funding this. the claims are 23 against him. Does it make sense that somehow him being part 24 of a bankruptcy process that is open and transparent -- how 25 does that harm him?

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Being put into bankruptcy is what 2 we were concerned about. By putting him in bankruptcy would 3 harm his trademark value, his value to us and generally 4 cashflow. That was the reason as I understood it. And that 5 was the reason I was involved in discussing it.

6 MR. RUFF: Well, why didn't it harm the debtors
7 that actually filed then? They own intellectual property, 8 don't they?

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: They own intellectual property, but 10 they are not in the public eye at all. I don't think anyone 11 knew who InfoW was or Infowars LLC was. I would assume, and 12 I think a lot of people did, that that was a significant 13 entity other than the ownership of the trade name, which is 14 significant. That was all the significance to the business 15 operation (indiscernible).

16 MR. RUFF: Now, you had mentioned that when you 17 were negotiating -- for example, you had mentioned that you 18 said that when you discovered about those royalties, hey, 19 those have to become and be paid directly to -- I forget who 20 it was. I think IWHealth?

21 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes.

22 MR. RUFF: Okay. And when were those negotiations 23 taking place approximately?

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, they started on the first 25 Monday I was in Austin, right after the April 4th meeting

1 with Mr. Lee. They probably, you know, went for four or 2 five days (indiscernible) for transferring the 3 (indiscernible) sending money to the trust, we've got to get 4 bank account (indiscernible) for the trust.

5 MR. RUFF: Okay.

6 MR. SCHWARTZ: Because the trust was going to own
7 InfoHealth. That's what -- the decision was made to put it 8 (indiscernible).

9 MR. RUFF: Okay. And were you engaged as the 10 chief restructuring officer at that point?

11 MR. SCHWARTZ: I don't think so. I think I was 12 engaged on the 8th or 9th of April. I could have been. It 13 was very close to that date.

14 MR. RUFF: Okay. So the agreement, the trust 15 agreement that you said that you were negotiating, you were 16 not really negotiating on behalf of nay party, were you?

17 MR. SCHWARTZ: No. Each party had a lawyer there.
18 I guess the trust didn't. But I was the CRO. I guess I was 19 negotiating for the Debtors, because that's who my 20 responsibility was to.

21 MR. RUFF: Is it more accurate to say you were the 22 proposed CRO at that point?

23 MR. SCHWARTZ: Correct. I was proposed CRO.

24 MR. RUFF: Okay. So do you think maybe perhaps it 25 was more accurate to say that you were giving advice as to 1 how it would be better set up optically?

2 MR. SCHWARTZ: No. I was not giving advice on 3 (indiscernible). They wanted me to be CRO. I've got a 4 reputation -- I've been in this business for over 40 years.
5 And I've done all kinds of stuff. I worked as a 6 (indiscernible) receiver. I've been special
7 (indiscernible). I've got a reputation. They came to me
8 and they wanted my reputation. You want my reputation.
9 That's one of the things (indiscernible) everything to be 10 clear. If this money does not belong to Alex, shouldn't be 11 going to Alex, (indiscernible) over here. So I didn't put 12 it in those words, and I didn't have to.

13 MR. RUFF: Sure. So it's accurate to say that if 14 you were going to be a part of this, this is how you wanted 15 it to be done.

16 MR. SCHWARTZ: I wanted it to be clear, clean, as 17 see-through, and I wanted it to be right. I wanted as much 18 money getting into the pot. I'm not think that this was 19 being negotiated. I'm thinking this is going to be hard to 20 do with $725,000 and $40,000 a month royalty.

21 MR. RUFF: Right. So I guess my question then is 22 your negotiation was more on behalf of yourself and, hey, if 23 I'm going to be invested in this, this is how I want it to 24 be.

25 MR. SCHWARTZ: No. At that point in time, my

1 objective was to get as much money on the table you can get 2 for the benefit of claimants, the claimants. That was our 3 job. Okay? If they wanted me here, then they had let me do 4 my job. And that would continue to be the case. You know, 5 can we get more money on the table is the question I have.

6 MR. RUFF: Okay. But again, that was your job 7 that you were looking perhaps to do. At that point you had 8 not been engaged, correct?

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: Correct. I had not been engaged.

10 MR. RUFF: Okay. So Mr. Jones and presumably some 11 of his professionals were looking to have you engaged in 12 this process at this time. Is that correct?

13 MR. SCHWARTZ: Well, and they were definitely 14 considering engaging me because I went to their office and 15 they held nothing back from me that I asked f

16 MR. RUFF: And at that time, they were propping to 17 you this structure. Is that acute?

18 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes. They were working on the 19 structure. But the framework was...

20 MR. RUFF: Did they have a draft of trust 21 agreement, for example, for you to look at?

22 MR. SCHWARTZ: I don't recall when I first saw 23 that.

24 MR. RUFF: was it discussed do you believe?

25 MR. SCHWARTZ: In general, the trust agreement.

1 MR. RUFF: Okay.

2 MR. SCHWARTZ: I knew there was on coming. I knew 3 who the proposed trustees were.

4 MR. RUFF: If -- and that a big if -- if these 5 cases are to go forward, do you think the Debtor or you as 6 the chief restructuring officer of the Debtors would have 7 any opposition to a committee being appointed in these 8 cases?

9 MR. SCHWARTZ: I mean, whatever the Court wants.
10 I want this thing -- my goal when I walk off this thing five 11 years from now that nobody can question what I did. And if 12 someone wants to have a committee, they'll have a committee.
13 I mean, that's not for me to say. But I don't have a 14 problem with it.

15 MR. RUFF: All right. Thank you, Mr. Schwartz.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 Mr. Lee, let me just ask you. We're not going 18 forward today. Thank you very much, Mr. Schwartz.

19 MR. LEE: That's correct.

20 THE COURT: So you agree with Mr. Williams that I 21 think it's premature to set a date on a timing for the 22 motion, call it the trustee motion, until there is some -- 23 until the document stops moving. And then somebody can 24 refile the --

25 MR. LEE: I disagree -- I apologize.

1 THE COURT: No, I get it. But I'm just telling 2 you. Because you're asking for this (indiscernible) relief, 3 right? And this is different than -- maybe you refile
4 something and maybe the date gets set. But as of right now, 5 I don't know what version of that document is going to look 6 like based upon the statements that Mr. Okin made. So this 7 isn't a DIP that's going to get tweaked or a disclosure 8 statement where additional sentences are going to get added 9 based upon objections and you kind of negotiate it up. This 10 is a trust agreement that, I don't know, could materially 11 change. Mr. Battaglia tells me it won't or he doesn't 12 anticipate it, but I don't know. Maybe we set a status 13 conference in a week and then we'll know more.

14 MR. LEE: Your Honor, I fully support that. And 15 let me just add to this that --

16 THE COURT: Let me get this additional thought 17 out.

18 MR. LEE: Yes, sir.

19 THE COURT: At that status conference, you're 20 going to have to help me understand why at a minimum InfoW
21 and Prison Planet are Subchapter V debtors. We haven't 22 taken any evidence today. But based upon what I've heard -- 23 so I'm not ruling on it. You're going to have to help me 24 understand.

25 MR. LEE: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: And I want to make sure that everybody 2 understands why I'm asking these questions. And it's based 3 entirely on the statutory provisions. Section 1182 of the 4 Bankruptcy Code defines a Debtor as a person that engaged in 5 commercial or business activity. Person is defined in 6 Section 101(41) of the Bankruptcy Code and includes 7 individuals, partnerships, or corporations. So person 8 directly is satisfied, but commercial or business activity, 9 I don't hear any. (indiscernible) comes to those two. And 10 today is not the day to take it up. I just want everybody 11 to give it some thought based on what I heard. I think 12 IWHealth -- and again, I didn't take any evidence. But I 13 did hear Mr. Schwartz say that at least there is a royalty 14 of some amount coming in every month, which I think puts 15 that entity in a different bucket than the other two that I 16 heard. And again, this is just preliminary discussions that 17 I've heard. And I'm putting this in the what kind of case 18 do we have as I ask the questions about third-party funding, 19 you know, the ability for them to cut off the lifeline of a 20 case at any point, the role of the trustees and who they 21 would serve, the role of a CRO, whether a true fiduciary of 22 the estate or working for a trust that has not -- that may 23 not have the best interest of the estate. And it may or may 24 not, but I think at a minimum I need to understand from a 25 foundational standpoint what chapter these cases should be

1 in.

2 It sounds like other motions are going to get 3 filed, and I'm not here to prejudice or encourage one way or 4 the other what people are going to file. People will file 5 whatever they file, and we take them up in due course. But 6 based upon what I heard, I think we've got -- I've got to 7 answer that question pretty quickly, and I think it can be 8 done in short order I suspect.

9 Mr. Lee?

10 MR. LEE: Yes, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Now I'm going to stay quiet.

12 MR. LEE: Number one, with respect to the question 13 that you've asked about the two other entities, I can give 14 you the answer today, but I am prepared to answer at the 15 status conference, and we'll present whatever you want that 16 we think satisfies the business rule that you are asking 17 about insofar as these two Debtor entities, and we are happy 18 to do that.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. LEE: Number two, whatever they want to file, 21 please file. Number three, in our way of thinking about 22 this issue, Your Honor, there's only so much a Debtor can do 23 pre-petition to negotiate with third parties. Like in a 24 DIP, as you all know. We've brought what is best -- what we 25 could do with third parties. We are asking now for the

1 creditors, the U.S. Trustee, and for you to help us finish 2 those negotiations. Because we don't have the balance of 3 the leverage of negotiations with FSS and Alex Jones. And 4 that's why we are here. And so if the parties want to do 5 that, they should do that. And we encourage that. We've 6 told everybody that. But for people to just nick pick at 7 this thing and to say it's not appropriate, et cetera, 8 they're fine. They can do that. But I want the Court and 9 everyone to know that there is a good faith effort being 10 made here to try to do something constructive with the 11 bankruptcy process. And you're right, it's not perfect.
12 It's not the panacea of all things. But it is a construct 13 devised to bring together the parties to a resolution of a 14 very sad and complex situation. And just like the Boy 15 Scouts, just like the Catholic Diocese, just like any other 16 situation where litigation is at hand, the Bankruptcy Code 17 and the courts are the appropriate vehicles to do this. And 18 we've picked one because we think it's a resolution process 19 that makes sense here. And because, unlike the Boy Scouts, 20 unlike Catholic Diocese, there are not millions of dollars 21 available here. There are limited funds, and we are trying 22 to maximize it so that it goes to the Claimants. And that's 23 part of the reason why we chose Subchapter V, because not 24 only are we qualified to do that, but it's the right vehicle 25 under the Bankruptcy Code to do this. And that's why we are 1 here.

2 And again, these are arguments, nothing more than 3 arguments. And we'll come to you at the appropriate time to 4 make these as actual fact and proof. But we'll be here on 5 the status conference when you want us to. I'm going to 6 push the parties to get this trust document done. And I
7 will tell you, I disagree with Mr. Williams and I disagree 8 with the other parties wanting to delay this thing. Because 9 we only have 120 days to get this case done in my view. The 10 trust document is what it is. It will get fixed to the 11 point where I think you will get comfortable with it. The 12 two jurists aren't going to sit on something were either 13 they have been misled or not appropriate.

14 And for people to suggest that you're going to be 15 snookered by something like this I think is inappropriate.
16 The parties are going to act right on this side of the 17 table, and we're going to do our very best to make sure the 18 process is correct, that it's upright, and that it's in good 19 faith. And I will be here to present all of that to you 20 next Friday, and I'm going to push the parties to get the 21 trust document done and to fix the PSA as you pointed out 22 and the things that you've said so far. And we'll proceed 23 as --

24 THE COURT: Wait a minute. I'm not approving the 25 PSA. So (indiscernible).

1 MR. LEE: I'm a little overly-ambitious today, 2 Your Honor. And I apologize for that. But we will be here
3 Friday to take care of whatever you --

4 THE COURT: I want -- there's a lot of folks here 5 I courtroom and a lot of folks on the phone saying they are 6 going to file things. And once they're filed, we'll take a 7 look at them and we'll take them up. I am making no ruling 8 today on the two matters that were set, the CRO motion and 9 the trustee motion. I very much appreciate all the comments
10 made by the parties. I very much appreciate the statements 11 made by Mr. Schwartz. I know more than I did before I got 12 on. And if parties file things, then we'll take them up.
13 Everybody knows here in Southern District, reach out to my 14 case manager and just let me know something got filed. You 15 know, I'll set a hearing on it.

16 Why don't we set a status conference? And status 17 conference, again, I don't know if it's going to be an 18 evidentiary hearing. It might just -- but everybody is 19 going to get plenty of notice before any witness is filed.
20 I can carry any witness and exhibit list that got filed. If 21 parties want to supplement it based upon something they may 22 or may not see, they certainly have the right to do so. But 23 I'm not going to -- you know, if you filed something today 24 and you feel like it's good, it will carry whenever 25 something gets heard, probably should take comfort in that.

1 You know, would Friday the 29th, do you think we 2 could hold it -- would 3:00 work for the parties?

3 MR. LEE: For the Debtors it does, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MR. LEE: I'm sorry, Your Honor. Did you say the 6 29th?

7 THE COURT: Yes. That's next Friday I believe.
8 Yeah.

9 MR. OKIN: Your Honor, if the goal was to have the 10 trust document done and available to parties with time to 11 read it, could I suggest we push it to Monday?

12 THE COURT: Well, the reason I am not pushing it 13 until that following Monday is I would like to stop and just 14 see where things are. And maybe at that point -- I don't -- 15 there's going to be a lot of moving pieces over the next 16 week, and I want to just stop there, even if it's just to 17 check in. It could be a ten-minute hearing. It could be 18 more. But I want to check in at that point and I want to 19 put the pressure on the parties, which means that some young 20 associate is going to be working all weekend. And all I can 21 say is I've been there.

22 MR. LEE: Your Honor, if I may ask, are there any 23 specific issues you would like for us to be in a position to 24 address for you at that status conference next Friday?

25 THE COURT: The only things that are before me are

1 the two motions. And I've got to check in to see where that 2 is and when the parties wish to go forward on that. And if 3 something else gets filed, then we can talk scheduling on 4 that. But at least it's a good place, we don't lose much 5 time on this.

6 Does anyone else have anything they wish to say at 7 this time?

8 MR. WALSTON: Your Honor, Cliff Walston on behalf 9 of the Texas plaintiffs.

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 MR. WALSTON: The only other data point I would 12 like to add is I do believe as to what is coming, the Texas 13 plaintiffs intend to immediately file a motion to lift the 14 stay before Your Honor and a motion to remand the trial 15 court proceedings back to the state court. In particular, 16 the trial that was supposed to start on Monday. And I think 17 that it's important to --

18 THE COURT: But can you just -- something -- I 19 don't know -- I heard the word remand. I have not heard the 20 word removed.

21 MR. WALSTON: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: I don't know what the status of that 23 litigation is and where it is. Maybe you can help me with 24 that.

25 MR. WALSTON: Sure. I'll help you. I'd love to 1 fill you in on the details of that.

2 As we all know, Mr. Lee filed this plan in the wee 3 hours of Monday morning. At 9:30 Monday morning of this 4 week, the plaintiffs in that lawsuit non-suited Infowars
5 LLC.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 MR. WALSTON: Infowars LLC was the only debtor
8 that was a defendant in that case. The other two debtors 9 are not parties to that case. Then after at 3:30 p.m., even 10 though by operation of law, Infowars LLC was no longer a 11 party to that litigation because the notice of non-suit had 12 been filed and under state law becomes effective upon 13 filing, Infowars nevertheless removed that case to the 14 Western District in Austin because that case was set to 15 proceed in Austin. And they had a pretrial hearing on 16 Wednesday of this week previously scheduled to handle all 17 pretrial matters in addition. The court there had requested 18 an especially large jury pool of extra jurors to show up on 19 Monday.

20 And so ultimately after a contested hearing on 21 Wednesday about whether that removal was proper, even though 22 at the time of removal Infowars was not a party to that 23 case, the court ultimately decided there in the trial court 24 that the plaintiffs needed to go to the court of -- to the 25 Austin bankruptcy court, Western District Bankruptcy Court,

1 seek remand of that trial court back to her. And she 2 informed all of the parties that the very first possible day 3 after that case hits back and she is able to get a hundred 4 jurors in that courtroom, that they were going to start 5 trial.

6 THE COURT: So that's the question. You kind of 7 got to it. So it's not before me.

8 MR. WALSTON: It is not before you. The motion to 9 lift --

10 THE COURT: (indiscernible).

11 MR. WALSTON: You said what is going to be filed.

12 THE COURT: No, I appreciate it.

13 MR. WALSTON: None of the cases -- so there were 14 three cases for the Texas plaintiffs set back to back to 15 back. The first was supposed to start on Monday. The 16 second one was June, I believe. And the third one is set 17 for August, I believe. So all three of those cases were 18 removed to the Western District as a part of this filing.

19 What is before you though is in the second and 20 third of those cases, Infowars LLC is still a defendant in 21 those cases. So we will be seeking to lift the stay as to 22 those two, to then go to the Western District to seek remand 23 of those two cases, what I'm going to call the June and 24 August trials.

25 THE COURT: Got it.

1 MR. WALSTON: But the reason why I raise these 2 issues is because those trials aren't just about liquidating
3 the damages, liquidating these claims. And I actually 4 applaud Mr. Lee for trying to come up with a creative 5 structure to put some money on the table for the Claimants.
6 But those trials will actually determine the nature of those 7 claims and likelihood. And here's why.

8 The Austin court had already entered a liability 9 finding against Mr. Jones with three key issues. The first 10 was that he was liable for defamation. The second was that 11 he did that with actual malice, which includes an intent to 12 harm element. And the third was a finding that all of Mr.
13 Jones' entities, including Infowars, Free Speech Systems, 14 and Mr. Jones himself, were all alter egos of each other.

15 And so had that case gone to trial and there had 16 been the liability finding had become final and that claim 17 had been liquidated in terms of an actual dollar amount, 18 there is a very high likelihood that as to Alex Jones 19 individually, that would not have been a dischargeable debt 20 under 523 because it was a damage award against him for an 21 intentional tort in harming these families.

22 THE COURT: But I guess --

23 MR. WALSTON: And so it's the nature of the claim 24 as well, not just the amount.

25 THE COURT: No, I understand that. I guess but

1 procedurally what's coming our way is a motion to lift stay 2 to --

3 MR. WALSTON: Two of the three.

4 THE COURT: Two of the three to allow you to seek 5 remand.

6 MR. WALSTON: Correct.

7 THE COURT: In the Western District.

8 MR. WALSTON: We don't believe we need to seek 9 your lifting the stay as to the one case in which 10 (indiscernible). Correct.

11 THE COURT: Okay. I just want to make sure 12 procedurally I understood why you were using the word 13 remand.

14 MR. WALSTON: Yes.

15 THE COURT: You weren't asking me to remand 16 anything. It's in the Western District. I just wanted to 17 understand where they were.

18 MR. WALSTON: Correct.

19 THE COURT: Okay, thank you.

20 MR. WALSTON: And the other aspect of this too, 21 Your Honor, as we learned from Mr. Schwartz as to the type 22 of money that was generated by Alex Jones and his entities.
23 You know, each year we heard $80 million, we heard it's down 24 to $50 million. So the practical reality for these 25 creditors isn't just a dollar amount. Mr. Jones, since 2012

1 when this tragedy happened, has apparently generated in 2 excess of half a billion dollars of revenue with his 3 bullhorn. That's how he makes his money. He sells these 4 products because he has an audience of millions and millions 5 of people and he has a very, very loud bullhorn with which 6 to do it.

7 These individual families don't have that kind of 8 platform. They do in the courtroom. And these cases are 9 every bit as much about having a determination finally made 10 for them, them having their day in court in which Mr. Jones 11 is held accountable for his conduct. So it's not just about 12 a liquidating claims procedure, it is very emotional. And 13 that's why there are so many people in this courtroom and 14 stuff.

15 THE COURT: Yeah.

16 MR. WALSTON: So those cases are very important to 17 go forward, not just from a claims perspective and what that 18 claim really is, and is that claim even dischargeable, but 19 it's also about them having their day in court and the 20 emotional aspect that comes with that and their right as a 21 plaintiff to have their claims heard by a jury of their 22 peers.

23 THE COURT: If you file the motion, we'll consider 24 it.

25 MR. WALSTON: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 MR. LEE: Your Honor, just one observation to show
3 the power of the bankruptcy system. As soon as we filed, 4 they non-suited us. So it was (indiscernible) Infowars. I 5 just want you to know that.

6 THE COURT: Is there anything else procedurally I 7 should know about before we -- is there anyone on the line
8 who wishes to address the court? Hit five-star. I didn't 9 mean to neglect anyone who wishes to address the Court.
10 Okay. All right.

11 I thank everyone today for their participation. I 12 would let everyone know for those of you who are 13 participating by video and by phone, as you can tell, my 14 dial-in number and the GoToMeeting link is on there. It is 15 available at any time for me. So if there is another 16 hearing set, it sounds like Next Friday at 3:00 p.m., it's 17 going to be the same dial-in and the same GoToMeeting link 18 for all cases that are before me. So it's just not -- it's 19 a feature that I'm very proud of that we have here in the 20 Southern District of Texas. Feel free to participate, free 21 to listen in. And I thank you very much for your time and 22 your participation. I thank each of the parties for their 23 time, and I will see everyone next Friday at 3:00 p.m.
24 Thank you.
